Margaret Carney is sworn and testifies.

Pursuant to the information presented and good cause appearing,

THE COURT FINDS it is appropriate to initiate an Income Withholding Order consistent with the May 4, 2011 Decree of Dissolution.

LET THE RECORD REFLECT an Income Withholding Order for Father's child support and spousal maintenance obligation is initiated electronically this date. Confirmation number: 373410.

THE COURT FINDS that Mother has not yet complied with this Court's previous orders regarding TASC testing. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED Mother's parenting time shall continue to be supervised until such time that Mother has obtained 12 negative ETG tests through TASC. Diluted tests or missed tests shall be considered to be positive by the Court for purposes of this Order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that going forward, Mother's supervised parenting time with the minor children shall occur on Fridays.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED Mother shall limit her phone calls to Father to once per day. Father shall return any missed phone calls to Mother within 24 hours.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED Father shall be responsible for all of the communication regarding Mother's supervised parenting time and shall not allow that communication to be handled by paternal grandmother, except in the case of emergency.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED Mother shall provide an additional 30 days of ETG testing through TASC.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED Mother shall mail copies of her medical records, including psychiatric and behavioral health records to Barb Kiffmeyer, Father and the Court no later than 5:00 p.m. on June 1, 2012. Mother shall also include a copy of the request that she sent to the Jewish Family and Children's Services for said medical, psychiatric and behavioral health records.

THE COURT FINDS that Mother has an alcohol problem. Specifically, Mother has a history of alcohol abuse and she failed to test as ordered by the Court.
